Dear Class of 1998,

Rather than saying well, here we go! I guess I should say Well, There We Go! WE DID IT! As much as I thought the day would never come when we, the Class of 1998 would ever graduate, we have. Although we will miss walking down the halls of MHS seeing the teachers that have guided us through the years, the familiar faces that were there to lend a smile, and not to mention the school lunches(loaded nachos), I'm sure we are all ready to start our own lives, to start all over again, to make more memories. Before we do, let's look back at the memories we have made over the past five years.

There's not a better place to start than the eighth grade. It was our first year in the high school. It seems like just yesterday that we were trying to find our ways through the crowded corridors with the upper classman looking down on us. Back then, it was a project to find our lockers at the end of day without missing the bus. But by the end of the year we had united as one. And who could forget our first high school dance, ``Tropical Paradise.'' We rocked the cafeteria and then the gym with Freshman Fun Night. We soon came to be known as the worst class to hit Marshfield High, but we were proud. We grew up a little our sophomore year and got a chance to strut our stuff at ``Fashionably Loud,'' our sophomore fashion show. Let's never forget how awesome Adam Pattison looked walking down the runway wearing his top hat and gloves, with his cane at side.

Putting our underclassman days behind us, junior year hit with the teachers loading us with homework and also thoughts of college. ``I Will Remember You,'' our junior prom, was a great way to bring the class together leaving all of our worries behind, and dancing the night away. With Mark becoming our King, and Andrea becoming our Queen, it definitely made it a night to remember. And so, our final, but most exciting year came. We were finally seniors. It was our turn to look down on the eighth graders and by doing so, it reminded us of what it was once like to walk the corridors of MHS. It was time to agree with everyone who had once told us to hold onto high school for as long as we could. We entered Marshfield High just as fast as we have left it.

At this point, on behalf of the Class Officers, I would like to thank the graduated Class of 1998 for all the memories which you have made possible. Thank you for sticking by us and for your cooperation. Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to lead you throughout the years, and for allowing us to lead you out of Marshfield High.

I, the Senior Class President would like to thank the other officers for their hard work and dedication over the past five years. I would like to wish the Class of 1998 goodluck in whatever they pursue! You will never be forgotten!

Jennifer Herget,
Senior Class President

To boldly go where no one has gone before.
If you judge people,you have no time to love them.
We all have the right and the privilege to have friends. We can choose our friends based on our likes and dislikes. We don't hve to like the same people everyone else likes or not like someone because they aren't in our "group." Friendship is a personal thing.

Jillybeans,

We are so proud of you. Congratulations! You are a beautiful young lady and we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Mike & James

Jennifer,
As a child you were loved, and those memories shine like the light of a faraway star. But never forget, little girl. We love--ever more--the woman you are.
Love, Mom & Dad

Dear Caitlin,
As we celebrate this accomplishment in your life, we want you to know how proud we are of you. Your tireless determination, intelligence, confidence, sense of humor and love of adventure, tempered by experience, will bring you far in life.
"Be strong and of good courage," and know that we are here for you always.
You are loved,
Mom, Dad, Jarrod & John

"Have courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small ones; and when you have laboriously accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace. God is awake."

DREAMS

Seems so short a time
But it's not-a favorite bear,
A pretty dress
Even though soon you were a mess!

Looking back at old photos
We're glad you're who you are
Wouldn't trade you for gold
Even though sometimes we feel old!

Here's to what has been, is and will be
Daddy's girl and Mum's first
May everything you hope for
Dreams, on wings, soar.

Whitney,
You make doing things the right way look very easy, but, more importantly, you do the right thing (most of the time). We're proud of you, we'll miss you and your wonderful sense of humor. Have a great time in college and remember: "if you can dream it, you can do it" . . .
Love, Mom and Dad

Kate,
Congratulations. We are very proud of you. May your life be filled with happiness.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Emily,
We wish you a healthy appetite for life.
Love,
Mum & Michael

Heather, Katie, Bill, Stephanie & Blair -- Gotcha!
Love, Chris and Mike

Katie
You are my sunshine.
You've done a great job.
We love you.
Forever,
Mom & Dad

Shawn,
The years have flown by so quickly. It seems like only yesterday you started pre-school and now you are graduating. We are very proud of the mature, responsible and level headed young adult you are. Remember we will always be here for you. Our graduation wish is for you to have health, happiness, and success.
We love you,
Mom, Roy and Kristin

Melissa,
We are extremely proud of the challenges that you set for yourself these past four years. There is nothing in life except what we put into it.
We love you very much,
Dad, Mom & Becky

To our special Grad,
You took center stage in our lives on Jan. 25, 1980, and someday you'll take center stage for the rest of the world. Keep dancing to that other drummer, follow that dream, and don't give it up until you get there - 'cause we believe in you and we know you'll get there.
We love you,
Mom & Dad

Kortnee,
I can't believe that my little girl is all grown up. Thank you for being such a wonderful daughter. I am so proud of you and I love you!
Love,
Mom
